President's Report 30th November 2015

Fellow Rotarians, Partners and Friends,

First of all I owe you an apology for delaying our weekly Bulletin. I had to deal with few unexpected issues this week, and to make things worse, also managed to misplace my iPad. Pleased to advise that I now have it back...

December is Rotary's Disease Prevention and Treatment Month. It emphasizes on one of Rotary's biggest avenues of service. We all know that prevention is cheaper than treatment not only in monetary sense. Healthier society means more productive and more self-sufficient society. Improvements may be achieved by vaccinating children, educating people about health and dietary issues, general hygiene. Providing access to fresh drinking water is one of the most important issues in the third world countries.

It would be good if we could extend this message to the communities in Vanuatu during our next visit.

Come to the 2016 D9685 Conference - heaps of fun

Now that the garage sale is well and truly over, it is time to turn your mind to the Conference.

The Conference is on Friday 11th March and Saturday 12th March 2016 (no events on the Sunday this time which gives you the day off to sleep in/sober up/sightseeing, whatever).

Early Bird bookings for the Conference end on 30th November.

The Conference Website has more information but it is still too early for a full programme.

You can be certain it will be a good do - enlightening and fun - It always is.

We also need to sort out accommodation fairly soon to ensure we are all in the same place.

I suggest the Rydges Lakeside - now renamed QT Canberra. This is a short walk from the Conference Centre. We have stayed there before and it is a very respectable digs. I am also told that it has been refurbished.

Current prices are $182/night plus breakfast ($21). These rates seem to be a bit flexible - this rate came from reception but the website says $175/night plus $21 breakfast. If you want a view (same room but higher floor) the price goes up $50.

This is us at 2015 Conference If you think these rates are high you haven't stayed in Canberra recently

Could you please Give it some thought. I have never been to a bad conference and the more the merrier.

1. Check the website for more details
2. Update the schedule emailed to you, or advise your intent to Tony Makin.
3. Book the Conference before the end of November to get the Early Bird rate – booking is through the website.
4. Book a hotel room. QT phone number is 6247 6244 or reservations_canberra@qthotels.com.au . Rotary do not book accommodation.
5. Call Tony if you are not yet enthused.

Don't miss out – it will be good!

Kind Regards, Tony Makin

Humour

More From the Australian Enquiry Book - Household and General Information (Published 1894)

Turpentine. No household should be without a bottle of turpentine. It may be called a universal remedy, it is useful in so many ways. A few drops sprinkled in the bottom of the drawer where the boy's Tweed clothes or the sinter dresses, furs etc., are kept, will prevent moths touching them. Sprinkled in the safe, cupboard, and store-room shelves, it will keep ants away. In beds it is a preventative of bugs, and if a house is infested with them it should be used in the cracks of all the woodwork. It will clean the dirtiest paint if added (a spoonful to a bucket) to warm water used for washing it. In burns if applied at once, it gives instant relief. It is good for rheumatism and sore throat. Worms in children n, half a teaspoonful for a dose on an empty stomach, And in washing tweeds, winter dresses, etc., it is invaluable use with ammonia as described else-where.

Jewish Man

A female CNN journalist heard about a very old Jewish man who had been going to the Western Wall to pray, twice a day, every day, for a long, long time.

So she went to check it out. She went to the Western Wall and there he was, walking slowly up to the holy site. She watched him pray and after about 45 minutes, when he turned to leave, using a cane and moving very slowly, she approached him for an interview.

"Pardon me, sir, I'm Rebecca Smith from CNN. What's your name?"

"Morris Feinberg," he replied.

"Sir, how long have you been coming to the Western Wall and praying?"

"For about 60 years."

"60 years! That's amazing! What do you pray for?"

"I pray for peace between the Christians, Jews, and the Muslims."

"I pray for all the wars and all the hatred to stop."

"I pray for all our children to grow up safely as responsible adults and to love their fellow man."

"I pray that politicians tell us the truth and put the interests of the people ahead of their own interests."

And finally "I pray that everyone will be happy".

"How do you feel after doing this for 60 years?"

"Like I'm talking to a ----- Brick wall!"

Scottish Romance

A young Scottish lad and lass were sitting on a low stone wall, holding hands, gazing out over the loch. For several minutes they sat silently. Then finally the girl looked at the boy and said, "A penny for your thoughts, Angus."

"Well, uh, I was a-thinkin' Brenda... perhaps it's aboot time for a wee kiss."

The girl blushed, then leaned over and kissed him lightly on the cheek.

Then he blushed. The two turned once again to gaze out over the loch.

Minutes passed and the girl spoke again. "Another penny for your thoughts, Angus."

"Well, uh, I was a-thinkin' perhaps it's aboot time for a wee cuddle, Brenda."

The girl blushed, then leaned over and cuddled him for a few seconds. Then he blushed.

And the two turned once again to gaze out over the loch.

After a while, she again said, "Another penny for your thoughts, Angus."

"Well, uh, I was thinkin' perhaps it's aboot time you let me put my hand on your leg."

The girl blushed, then took his hand and put it on her knee. Then he blushed.

Then the two turned once again to gaze out over the loch before the girl spoke again.

"Another penny for your thoughts, Angus."

The young man glanced down with a furled brow.

"Well, noo," he said, "noo, my thoughts are a wee bit more serious this time, Brenda."

"Really?" said the lass in a whisper, starting to fill with anticipation.

"Aye," said the lad, nodding.

The girl looked away in shyness, began to blush, and bit her lip in anticipation of this ultimate request.

Then he said, "Dae ye nae think it's aboot time ye paid me the first three pennies?"ed
