19:00                      Dinner at Jenolan Caves House

09 / 10 Feb                Overnight stay at Jenolan Caves House

Sunday 10 February 2019

08:00                      Breakfast at Jenolan Caves House

09:00 – 10:00            Imperial Cave Tour

Cave features include 'The Sinkhole', 'Ridleys Shortcut' (with a story on how it got its name), 'Lot's Wife', the 'Alabaster Column' and the dramatic 'Crystal Cities' which looks like an ancient fortress. And as its name suggests, the 'Shawl Cave' is filled with delightful cave shawls.

When the floor of the Imperial Cave was excavated in 1975, bones were discovered. The bones of a Tasmanian Devil (long extinct on the mainland) and a Wallaby are on display. As you walk through the cave, you can also see marine fossils embedded in the limestone roof and walls.
