President Report 29th June 2015

“There are three kinds of men: The ones that learn by reading, the few who learn by observation and the rest of them have to pee on the electric fence and find out for themselves” and I am not telling you to which one I belong to!
On another note, I have to say Oh What a Night though it was a voluntary partner’s night we had 44 people in attendance which was GREAT.

What was incredible was the bonhomie and the fellowship, the noise and conversation was incredible as so many people were engaged in a social setting. Also thanks to various members and partners who helped me in settling down my nerves.

Daniel and his team in their Golden Jackets did a great job of imparting wisdom on buying and selling real estate and so did Frank Anise of Springfield and his team for the lovely room arrangement, delicious meal served always with a smile.

Next Monday we have our Winter RYPEN student Georgia Topolovic who is going to report back for apparently the camp went really well. We also have an interesting guest speaker from Fred Hollows - Frederick Cossom "Fred" Hollows, AC was a New Zealand and Australian ophthalmologist who became known for his work in restoring eyesight for countless thousands of people in Australia and many other countries.

It will be your last chance to say “G’day” to Maxx whom we will surely miss.

Also watch out for the “Tchetchenian Wheel of Terror” what horrors lie in store for us next week?????

Join us next Monday to hear more about it - till then have a superb week.

Set in Depression-era New York, FORTY-SECOND STREET spins the classic showbiz tale of a young hopeful joining the cast of her first Broadway show. When fading star Dorothy Brock breaks her leg onstage, director Julian Marsh plucks young Peggy Sawyer out of the ensemble and makes her a star.

Since its premiere in 1980, FORTY-SECOND STREET has picked up a swag of awards, including a Tony Award, a Drama Desk Award and a Laurence Olivier Award for Best Musical.

Featuring brilliant dance routines, synchronised tap ensembles and memorable tunes - including such musical theatre gems as 'We're In The Money', 'Lullaby of Broadway' and the show-stopping title song, the SYDNEY YOUTH MUSICAL THEATRE is excited to bring this all-time favourite Broadway musical comedy to the Hornsby RSL for six performances only.

Westcotts – 6th July

Humour

Sean is the vicar of a Protestant parish on the border of Northern Ireland and Eire , and Patrick is the priest at the Roman Catholic Church across the road.

One day they are seen together, erecting a sign which says,

"THE END IS NEAR. TURN YOURSELF AROUND NOW, BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE."

As a car speeds past them, the driver leans out his window and yells,
"Leave people alone, you religious nutters. We don't need your #### lectures."

From around the next curve they hear screeching tyres and a big splash.
Shaking his head, Father Patrick says "Dat's da terd one dis mornin'."

"Yaa," Sean agrees, then adds, "Do ya tink maybe da sign should just say "BRIDGE CLOSED"?"
